

Health Promotion Board

Privacy Statement governing the use of the Healthy 365 mobile application.

Last Revision Date: 04 October 2023

Introduction

The Healthy 365 mobile application (“App”) is operated by the Health Promotion Board (“HPB”). By accessing or using this App, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions as they may be modified from time to time. The HPB reserves the right to change these terms and conditions at any time at its sole discretion. Amendments will take effect when posted on the App. Your continued use of the App thereafter represents your agreement to any such amendments.

Through your use of the App, you will be able to participate in health-based challenges, events, activities or campaigns (“Challenge”). Your participation in a Challenge will be governed by the specific terms and conditions governing the said Challenge as well as these terms and conditions. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency, the terms and conditions governing the Challenge shall prevail.

The App, Challenges or other programmes may provide links to websites or digital services whose data protection and privacy practices may differ from ours. We are not responsible for the content and privacy practices of these other digital services and encourage you to consult the privacy notices of those digital services.

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING PRIVACY STATEMENT CAREFULLY BEFORE USING THIS APP.

Privacy Statement

Personal Data submitted to the HPB via this App will be treated in accordance with our HPB Privacy Statement set out in <https://www.hpb.gov.sg/privacy-statement> and this Healthy 365 Privacy Statement. In using this App, you acknowledge and agree to be bound by the HPB and Healthy 365 Privacy Statements. If there is any conflict between the Privacy Statements, this Healthy 365 Privacy Statement will prevail. This Privacy Statement must be read in conjunction with the Healthy 365 Terms and Conditions set out in <https://go.gov.sg/h365-termsofuse>. For the avoidance of doubt, “Personal Data” shall refer to personal data as defined in the Personal Data Protection Act 2012 (No. 26 of 2012) (“PDPA”).

If you choose to use this App, you consent to the collection, use and disclosure of your Personal Data by HPB for the purposes as set out herein. If you provide us with any Personal Data belonging to and/or relating to any third party (e.g., information about your child), by submitting such information to us, you represent that you have obtained the relevant consent of any such third party to provide us with their personal data. To safeguard your Personal Data, all electronic storage and transmission of Personal Data is secured with appropriate security technologies. We retain Personal Data as may be required for business, legal, contractual, regulatory or compliance purposes, which may vary according to circumstances. We will take reasonable steps to dispose or anonymise Personal Data that is no longer needed.

You agree to only submit Personal Data which is accurate and not misleading and to keep it up to date and inform us of any changes to the Personal Data that you have provided to us. We shall have the right to request for documentation and carry out the necessary checks to verify the Personal Data provided by you as part of our user verification processes or as required under law.

(A) Collection of information about you

1. We collect various types of Personal Data from you through the App such as name, address, photos, videos, personal contact details or emergency contacts. Personal Data also includes personally identifiable wellness or fitness information (e.g. weight and height entries, survey responses on lifestyle behaviour) including various activities identified through the App, devices used in conjunction with the App such as HPB or commercial fitness trackers or apps. For your convenience, we may also display to you data you had previously supplied us or Singapore public sector agencies (e.g., Personal Data from your MyInfo Account Data such as your SingPass/MyInfo UUID, NRIC Number/FIN, sex, dialect, date of birth, mobile number, email, registered address, occupation, employment sector, marital status, local registered birth records and sponsored child records). For the avoidance of doubt, “Singapore public sector agencies” shall refer to public sector agencies as defined in the Public Sector (Governance) Act 2018 (No. 5 of 2018) (“PSGA”). This will speed up the transaction and save you the trouble of repeating previous submissions. Should the data be out-of-date, please supply us the latest data via the Healthy 365 app.

2. When you use the App, we may monitor your usage of the App and collect Non-Personally Identifiable Information which means information not associated with an identifiable individual. Non-Personally Identifiable Information may include information which would otherwise be Personal Information, but which has been de-identified or aggregated. We may collect such Non-Personally Identifiable Information through your activities and transactions on the App, your location and the browser, operating system or device which you use to access the App.

(B) How we use your information (including Personal Data)

1. We may use information collected from you for any one or more of the following purposes:
 - a. operating and providing services and campaigns to you, including but not limited to the planning, implementation and conduct of all programmes and campaigns, sending of marketing collaterals, sending personalised messages, notifications or nudges, evaluation of results, determination of winners, identifying and contacting you should you qualify for any rewards or commit a breach of any applicable terms and conditions, conducting investigation of any violation of the applicable terms and conditions,
 - b. administering, processing and facilitating any transactions or activities by you, whether with us, Singapore public sector agencies, third party service providers or collaborators, and whether for your own benefit, or for the benefit of a third party on whose behalf you are duly authorized to act,
 - c. helping us analyse the usage of the App or Challenge/programme engagement to understand the effectiveness and to improve the App, Challenges or other programmes,
 - d. devise, organise and implement programmes and other activities for or related to the promotion of good health and healthy lifestyles amongst the people of Singapore, health education programmes, and the prevention or detection of diseases,
 - e. conduct research and publish findings in academic and/or scientific journals.
2. We may contact you to obtain feedback and send information about the App and / or any programmes and campaigns conducted on the App or otherwise. In addition, we may contact you to seek your participation in future studies, for research and analytics purposes which will facilitate HPB's formulation of health promotion programmes and policies for the purposes set out in paragraph (B)2. In this regard, you hereby give HPB your express consent to use your Personal Data to contact you for the aforementioned reasons.
3. For better promotion of good health and healthy lifestyles amongst Singapore residents, your information in the App may be linked with or supplemented by other information available to HPB including information from Singapore public sector agencies' initiatives (e.g., Screen For Life, Healthier SG) and/or third parties, such as healthcare providers.

(C) Disclosure of your information (including Personal Data)

1. We may share necessary information with Singapore public sector agencies, so as to serve you in a most efficient and effective way, unless such sharing is prohibited by law.
2. We may also share your information with the following parties:
 - a. the recipient has been authorized to provide services on our behalf,
 - b. the recipient is our service provider who provides us with necessary services or services on our behalf including but not limited to IT services, hosting and maintenance services, organizing of our events, accounting, data analytics services, email messaging services, sending personalised messages, notifications or nudges, advertising services, marketing, delivery services, handling of payment transactions, etc.,
 - c. the recipient is our consultant or professional adviser including but not limited to accountants, lawyers and auditors,
 - d. is a third party with whom HPB partners or collaborates (e.g., WhyQ) to devise, organize and implement, or to provide support or assistance to any third parties in devising, organizing and implementing, any Challenges/programmes or activities referred to in paragraph (b) above, and/or
 - e. is a healthcare provider (e.g., public healthcare institutions, general practitioners) or care provider (e.g., Agency for Integrated Care) with whom HPB partners with for the implementation of Healthier SG (if applicable) and other initiatives.

HPB reserves the right to change its third parties. Your continued use of the App therefore represents your agreement to the disclosure and use of your data, where applicable, by third parties that HPB has service agreements with or is in collaboration with.

Your information may also be disclosed if required by law, such as pursuant to a subpoena, regulator oversight or other legal process.

(D) Location Data

1. Certain services which are available on the App may make use of location data sent from your mobile device. You can turn this function off at any time by turning off the location services settings for the App on your device. When you turn on your location services settings, you consent to allow us, Singapore public sector agencies, our licensees, and unaffiliated third parties (including third party service providers engaged by us) to transmit, collect, process and use your location data to provide and improve location-based products and services.

Proprietary Rights & Restricted Use

All contents on this App are the property of the HPB, save as otherwise indicated. All trademarks, brand names, product names and titles and copyrights used on this App ("Intellectual Property") are the property of their respective holders.
