

Poorly controlled diabetes can lead to foot complications

Nerve damage can make your foot feel numb and change its shape, increasing your risk of getting calluses and ulcers

Extremely poor blood circulation (vasculopathy) can cause wounds to heal poorly; an amputation may be required to save your life