

How Type 1 diabetes develops

- Body's immune system destroys the insulin-producing beta cells of the pancreas (insulin factory). The body is unable to produce sufficient insulin.

- Without insulin, the body is unable to move glucose from the bloodstream into the body cells to use for energy. As a result, blood sugar levels remain high.