

How to Slow Down the Progression of Myopia?

Atropine eye drops

In low concentrations, the eye drops help to slow down myopia progression

Ortho-K lenses

Worn overnight, these lenses reshape the cornea for clearer vision during the day

Myopia control lenses

Contains technology that focuses light differently from normal glasses, which slows down myopia progression

Please consult an eye doctor or optometrist for more information.

Manage your appointments at your fingertips

