

Excess internal fat can cause problems

Internal fat

Fat surrounding internal organs, and those which enters organs and muscles, can lead to inflammation and damage of body cells.

Consequences of excess fat in the body

- Insulin resistance, high blood pressure, high LDL-cholesterol, low HDL-cholesterol and high triglycerides.
- Excess internal fat can cause damage to the pancreas and other organs.